

Increase Precincts In Frankfort And N.Lenox

The Will county board has increased the number of voting precincts from 157 to 187, a gain of 30 which includes two in Frankfort township and three in New Lenox. Joliet is to have 11 more precincts. Lockport will have 22, or four more than was the rule last year. Frankfort precincts are, in Frankfort, and precinct two, Mokena are split; in New Lenox precincts one, three and four are divided.

Precincts have been growing steadily in population in the past decade and the county board is endeavoring to keep pace with it as rapidly as finances permit. More precincts mean more judges of election, more voting booths, more election supplies, and all that means more money.

As is the case in most downstate counties Will county uses paper ballots. From time to time suggestions are made to the county board to put in voting machines but such a venture would cost so much, it has been pointed out that the board would have to ask approval of a bond issue.

Theoretically when the population of a precinct is reduced the counting of votes can be done more speedily but it doesn't always work out that way, political observers point out. Whether the returns will be speeded up by having 187 precincts instead of 157 is a question that next year's elections will decide. Officials who work the elections, the candidates, their families, job holders and information media workers are interested in speedier returns and for the most part are enthusiastic boosters of the use of voting machines. The rest of the public, however, it was pointed out, probably are willing to wait longer to find out who is elected than to approve a bond issue to buy the machines.

Appoint Bucher As New County School Chief

Boyd R. Bucher is the new county superintendent of schools.

He has been appointed to the post by the Will county board of supervisors to succeed Verne E. Crackel, resigned.

Mr. Bucher was assistant county superintendent for the past five years and was recommended by Crackel for the post. He will hold office until August, 1967, when Crackel's term would expire.

Oddly enough Mr. Crackel became county superintendent of schools thru appointment by the county board. He was superintendent of schools in the eastern section of the county when he was named as successor to Louis Bottino, who had resigned to enter the legislature as a representative. Now Bottino is going to the eastern part of the county as a school superintendent and Mr. Crackel is going to Springfield to become first assistant to State School Superintendent Ray Page. He begins his new duties July 1 and carries with him all the best wishes of the school people of Will county. Mr. Crackel was not only rated as a good school administrator but was well liked too.

At the time Page announced Crackel's appointment several weeks ago the latter said he would recommend Bucher as his successor, speaking very highly of his assistant.

Bucher, who resides at Lockport, was superintendent of Kelvin Grove school there for 10 years before becoming assistant county superintendent. He has had extensive experience despite the fact he is only 43 years old. He attended Eureka college three years and then took his bachelor and masters' degrees at Drake university in education. Since then he has taken graduate work at the University of Colorado and Northern Illinois university. He served in the army for five years in World War II, starting as a buck private and later winning promotion to officer rank. He has taught one-room schools, grade schools and in high school and also adult education courses.

He was the speaker at the graduation exercises for the eighth grade at Frankfort this month.

A Lockport supervisor, Daniel Lambert, placed Bucher's name before the county board on Monday of this week and the second came from John Oster, of New Lenox, himself a former school superintendent... A voice vote taken by Chairman Roy Hassert was unanimous. No other applications for the post had been filed.

Summer Band Program Set For Mokena And Frankfort

Special classes in jazz band, theory of music and rock n roll will be held at the end of the day, 2:30 to 3 p.m. for those who wish to attend.

The same schedule will be followed at Mokena on Tuesdays and Fridays.

There is no charge for attendance and youngster interested in band work is invited to attend, it was announced.

AUG. 1 DEADLINE FOR TAXES, SAYS COUNTY BOARD

Tax deadlines have been fixed by the Will county board of supervisors, Aug. 1 and Oct. 1. After those dates there will be penalties charged on all unpaid taxes.

First installment on real estate taxes is due before Aug. 1 and the second installment before Oct. 1. One may pay both installments at the beginning if one wishes, it was pointed out. Personal property taxes must be paid in one sum and are due before Aug. 1.

Normally June 1 is the deadline for tax payments, personal and first installment real estate, but the board of review had so many complaints last year that it finished its work late and the tax bills are not expected to reach the property owners until July 1.

Town collectors will function until Aug. 1 when the county treasurer as county collector takes over.

WINS VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, 11026 Revere rd., Mokena, were the recipients of a three-day paid vacation at the Abbey, Lake Geneva, Wis.

Miller was one of the five top sales leaders out of the Joliet area working for Metropolitan Life Ins. Co., who received this all expense paid trip.

Annexes Tract Near St. Mary

The Mokena village board has annexed approximately 10 acres owned by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marcoux in the vicinity of St. Mary church which apparently he intends to subdivide.

The village board had had a letter from him asking that the property be rezoned so as to permit lots with a 65-foot frontage and 7800 square feet in total size.

This is a matter for the zoning board, the village board said, but no notice for a zoning hearing has been submitted this week for publication and such a notice is required.

Park Recreation Program Starts In Mokena Dist.

The summer recreation program sponsored by the Mokena park district was launched this week.

Cindy Robinson, who is majoring in physical education, at Eastern Illinois university, Charleston, is in charge. Monday and Tuesday were devoted to the task of registering youngsters as well as getting them started in various activities.

Mokena Community park is the scene of the program that begins at 9 a.m. and runs to 12 noon and then resumes at 1 o'clock and continues until 4:00, Monday thru Friday. The program will be in force thru Aug. 6, and is for youngsters between the ages of six and 14.

More playground equipment was added to the park this year, according to Charles Swanberg, president of the park board.

Miss Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norval Robinson has planned a well-rounded program for the summer, it was pointed out, with something for everyone. It is open to all youngsters in the park district.

AT WORK on Francis road grade separation, Highway I-80 eventually will pass under Francis road in the vicinity of Stevert rd. Local leaders would have the state build a bypass so Francis road can be kept open while the work is in progress. So far the state has made no provision for a detour which means pretty soon now Francis road will be closed. That dust effect in the photo is dust.

Mokena To Vote Again On Water Expansion Program

Mokena residents will vote again on the proposal to issue $105,000 in bonds to finance a program for expanding the water system.

The project has been voted down twice but the village board sees it as essential to the progress and development of the community.

The program calls for extension of certain mains to replace inch pipes that serve some localities and to install adequate mains on Wolf road that will give fire protection.

The program also calls for the drilling of a second well, a master meter, a chlorinator and repairs to the present storage tank.

A tentative date of July 31 has been set for the referendum and the board has again retained Howard Voss, a Chicago bonding consultant, to aid in disposing of the bonds to the best advantage if the proposal carries.

Voss also will aid the village board in preparing plans for the election.

The board intends to provide the public with all details of the program and a breakdown of the costs.

It is reported there are some leaks in the present tank and the sheathing that protects the water supply against freezing is in need of replacement, it was said.

There are some homes in the center of the village, it was stated, that are supplied thru inch pipes with the result there are times of day when it is quite difficult to get enough water for minimum household use.

Another well, it was stated, is also necessary to provide a sufficient water supply and pressure to meet the expected needs. Officials point out that Mokena cannot escape growth and that a village cannot wait until it finds its population doing high-climbs and then start building up utilities to meet the conditions.

The chlorinator is needed as a health protection measure, it was pointed out.

It is the hope of the trustees that this time the public will support the bond issue. Some of the opposition in the past, it is claimed, stemmed from reasons other objections to borrowing money to make the proposed improvement and some people then contended they did not understand what the village wanted to do. It is the hope of the board that this time they will have everything made clear before election.

Auction Highlight Of Festival

One of the highlights of three-day Fourth of July festival at Mokena will be the auction that is to be held in Community park on Saturday, July 3.

Norman Strassenburg, a professional auctioneer, will conduct the sale and it is open to the public. Anyone who has anything they want sold can send it to the auction. They will receive 90 per cent of the price the item brings; the remaining 10 per cent goes to the Mokena Chamber of Commerce and Lions club, sponsors of the festival.

Persons with goods for the auction can bring it to the large van parked alongside the Grey Real Estate office on Wolf rd. The van is there for use daily between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Arrangements for a pick-up of articles can be made by calling 479-5776.

Persons who want to enter a float in the parade on July 4 or find out details concerning it may call Norval Robinson.

Many organizations will have booths or concessions at Community park and there will be rides for the youngsters. Proceeds from the event will be used by the various participating groups for more or less public or welfare programs.

Illinois House Commends SW Development Committee

A resolution commending the Southwest Development for its work in pushing for completion of the east-west transcontinental highway, I-80, and thereby furthering the development of the region, has been adopted by the house of representatives of the Illinois general assembly.

The Southwest Development Committee is a voluntary organization made up of citizens of Cook and Will counties -- with the support of 14 Junior Chambers of Commerce -- interested in promoting transportation and other facilities for the industrial expansion of the area.

The vast industrial complex at the south end of Lake Michigan in Illinois and Indiana is often referred to as the "Ruhr Valley of the Americas," and is vital to the defense of the U. S., it has been pointed out on many occasions. At the time interstate program was launched congress emphasized the defense feature, and I-80 was recognized as most important because it was the most direct route linking the east and west coasts, a SWDC spokesman declared.

Turnpikes and tollroads were utilized in the east to speed up the program on I-80, it was explained, but progress ceased at Hazelcrest. The project bogged down there, and is still bogged. I-80 is completed between Joliet and the Mississippi.

The Southwest Development Committee is striving to get the link between Joliet and Hazelcrest completed, thus opening the route into Iowa.

WHAT IS IT? This question asked two weeks ago is still in the $64 category. Some kind of a light, says a laboratory spokesman for Eastman Kodak, but not a flying object--saucer or otherwise. Looks a lot like a fluorescent lighting fixture, he says, but Mrs. Richard Hedman, whose son Mark exposed the film on which the above image appeared, said they didn't have any such fixtures in the apartment they occupied at the time in Milwaukee. Mother and son are both trying to recall what pictures Mark endeavored to take on that particular roll of film other than the lunar eclipse of last December.

Could Be Light Fixture, Says Kodak Lab. Of Mystery Image

The image appearing on a film exposed by 11-year-old Mark Hedman, a pupil at Carpenter Street school, Mokena, is still causing speculation and conversation.

A print of the image was first run in the Graphic Newspapers June 3. It is appearing again in this issue because it requires less space to show it than to describe it.

The strip of film on which image appears was sent to the Eastman Kodak Co. laboratory at Rochester, N.Y., by Gene H. Morrall, principal of Carpenter Street School. Now Morrall has the film back with an accompanying letter from F. S. Pallo, of the Consumer Markets Division.

To the people at Rochester the image appears to be that of a lighting fixture.

"... Even if one were to consider that this was a photograph of a flying object," the letter reads in part, "the image size and intensity on the film indicates that it would have been so close to the earth and so brilliant that literally thousands of people would have witnessed the event... We are asked to identify objects like this as quite ordinary, even though they were recorded in an unusual manner by the film.

"In this particular instance, it appears that the image of your student's film is that of a lighting fixture of some sort. As a matter of fact, it is very similar to the fluorescent ceiling fixture in my own home, with the difference being that the fixture recorded by your student seems to have baffles of some sort underneath the circular fluorescent tubes. A situation such as this is often encountered if a person attempts to make a flash picture indoors and the flash unit does not fire properly. If there are any lights included in the scene they will register on the film but everything else will be blank.

"The newspaper article referred to the image as being on the 'last negative' on the roll, but it was actually recorded on the first exposure. If your student and/or his parents can recall just exactly where this first exposure was made, I'm sure that the 'mystery' could be solved quite easily. The newspaper story stated that Mark went out on the rear porch of the family's apartment (the family was then living in Milwaukee and the time was December) to attempt making photographs of an eclipse, and if the entire roll of film was exposed at that time the porch or surrounding area should be checked for this type of fixture. If the film was loaded in the camera prior to this event, about all we can suggest is that the circumstances be recalled in order to arrive at the logical solution.

"Incidentally, if you will re-examine the other strip of film you will notice two black dots in the center of the roll. Microscopic examination reveals that these dots are, in fact, photographs of the eclipse, altho they are quite severely underexposed. Since these images do not appear anywhere else on either piece of film, I would strongly suspect that the beginning of the roll was exposed prior to the taking of the eclipse pictures. If flash equipment was used for those pictures, it would certainly be a good idea to have Mark's parents check the flash unit, and particularly the batteries in it, before attempting to make additional flash pictures..."

Mark's mother, Mrs. Richard Hedman, and Mark are attempting to recall what use was made of the film. They both know Mark did not use a flash unit. They know too that there were no lighting fixtures in the apartment such as described by the Eastman people or that has any resemblance to the image; nor did the gas range have burners that would produce such an image.

There was another lunar eclipse June 14. The people at Eastman sent Mark a booklet dealing with lunar eclipse photography in case he wanted to try again. Mark said he would try, and hopes this venture is more successful as far as the eclipse is concerned. He couldn't hope to bag another image such as the one in the picture above.

BACK FROM TRIP that took them to Detroit, Dearborn, Greenfield Village and a jaunt over the border to Windsor, Can., 11 members of Troop 97, Mokena Girl Scout Cadettes, have a wealth of souvenirs, snapshots and memories to show for the journey that began June 8 and ended June 11. They visited several museums and also made a tour of the Ford Company's Rouge River plant. This was the trip that the girls financed thru various activities the past year. Movies of the trip were taken by Mrs. Robert Best, Mrs. Best and Mrs. Ralph Snow, troop leaders accompanied the girls. The Cadettes are: Joann Clark, Jackie Snow, Gayle O'Conner, Joyce Wilson, Nancy Jo Edwards, Susan Schutts, Jan Fant, Yvette DeForrest, Aura Spiess, Karen Moutrey and Janet Wagner.

Library Strikes Bonanza--Gets 1000 Books

The Mokena library, threatened with leaner days unless it becomes a part of some tax supported library system, is faring quite well as of the moment.

Mrs. Rudolph Engelhardt, who is on the library board and who has been consulting with state library officials about the situation announced this week that the state library has allowed Mokena the loan of 400 books and that Supt. James Ennis, of the Mokena grade school, has made 600 books available, so the library now has 1,000 books to loan this summer.

The 600 books made available by Supt. Ennis are intended for use in the school library next fall but they have been delivered early and Mr. Ennis could see no reason why they aren't used.

It has been suggested that the Mokena library go on a tax basis, along with other communities that get along on voluntary contributions, and that it acquire the Emmanuel Lutheran church building in the village park and make it into a library. The Lutherans are building a new church on LaPorter rd. The old church is on land dedicated to the village by Denny, one of the founders of Mokena. There are some legalities involved but it has been pointed out that the church probably could be had at a very reasonable figure because the only thing a purchaser, other than another congregation or possibly the library, could do with it would be to move it or tear it down for the salvage. Whether a library is a purpose for which the land can be used will probably rest on how the village board and its advisers interpret the dedication, it was stated.

Following are the new Lincoln books.

The Lincoln library is a part of the new school's library and has one of the finest collections of its kind. Many people have placed books in this section as memorials. Faculty members have made many such contributions.

Alert gardeners are constantly on the watch for insects and diseases in their yards. In fact, to be on the safe side, they often spray to eliminate these problems before they occur.

Roses are managed to prevent mildew and blackspot. Fruit trees need help in the prevention of numerous insects and diseases. Sometimes, however, even the best managed garden will develop symptoms that are responsive to neither insecticides nor disease preventing dusts or sprays. When such a condition develops, it's well to consider the possibility of a nutrient deficiency. Plants, like people, demand various elements in their diet. If any element is lacking, the plant responds in a predictable pattern. By recognizing these patterns, you can determine how to correct the situation.

First, consider the part of the plant affected. The condition may occur only on the older, lower leaves or throughout the entire plant. Should the lower leaves become mottled with a dead leaf margin, consider the possibility of a potassium deficiency. Leaf drop with the edges curled under is further proof.

Nitrogen deficiency is recognized by a plant with light green foliage throughout. The lower leaves will turn bright yellow and eventually turn crisp and brown but not drop. New or upper leaves will be smaller than the lower, older ones. Further proof will be a general stunted, slender, spindly growth with few new side shoots.

Phosphorus lack can be distinguished from a nitrogen deficiency by the presence of a dark green color. Lower leaves may sometimes become yellow between the veins. More often, the leaves will show a tendency to develop a purplish cast, especially the stem of the leaf. There will also, as contrasted with a nitrogen lack, be a tendency for the lower leaves to drop.

Another problem often seen is the iron deficiency. Only the tips or new growth will exhibit the characteristic pattern. In this area, look for dark green veins with a cream colored or lighter green background. When such a condition exists, a spray with chelated iron will often correct the condition within a few days. However, other conditions can also cause this growth pattern. Examples are a soil with too much lime, cold soil of early spring, overwatering, and nematodes on the roots.

Nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium deficiencies can be corrected by weekly foliar feeding or spraying with a very diluted solution of a soluble fertilizer. An example would be one teaspoonful of a 20-20-20 fertilizer per gallon of water. Improvement should be noted ten days after the first application. This foliar feeding, however, is but a quick temporary method of correcting the problem. Lasting results are obtained only by fertilizing the soil. If either nitrogen phosphorus, or potassium is lacking, apply three to four pounds of a 5-10-5 or 10-6-4 per 100 square feet.

Honor Three Teachers, Now Retiring At Homer

BY VIRGINIA SASS
More than 100 former students, friends, school administrators and board members paid tribute to three Homer grade school teachers who are retiring now after many years of service. The dinner was held at the Blue Willow in Lockport with the board of education as host.

Honored were Mrs. Gladys Jensen, Mrs. Mary Kay Baltz and Mrs. Pearl Rodgers who were all teachers in one-room schools in Homer township until consolidation in 1958 moved them to the staff of the new Homer school -- District 33-C-- on north Cedar rd.

A summary of the career of each was given by three former pupils.

Jerome Paddock spoke in behalf of his former teacher, Mrs. Rodgers. He related interesting accounts of her twenty years spent in the teaching profession. She began her teaching career at the Maple Street school, taught eight years at the Ross school and a few years at the Wells Corner school just before moving to the new school where she taught fifth grade and seventh grade.

John Buck talked of his former teacher, at the Barnett school, in Homer Township, Mrs. Mary K. Baltz. Mrs. Baltz began her teaching career at the O.F. Barbara school in Rockford. She taught schools in the Joliet area for several years before coming to the Barnett school. She has served as the second grade teacher at the new Homer school.

Miss Betty Anderson spoke of Mrs. Jensen, who was her teacher at Hadley school the entire eight years. Mrs. Jensen has 31 1/2 years of teaching to her credit. She began at the Hadley school. Later she taught at Fairmont grade school for seven years and then came back to Homer township, teaching in the Goodings Grove and Hadley schools. She has been the first grade teacher at the new school.

Thru the tribute given by former pupils, the dedication and devotion of these honored teachers was revealed. In the little one-room country schools they were not only the teachers, but also the janitors, nurse and cooks. Besides teaching eight grades a day they also had gym, art and music classes.

Tributes were given the retirees by William Tweedy, superintendent; Mrs. Loren Sass, president of the Homer School club; County Supt. Verne E. Crackel and Vern Moravec was master of ceremonies. Verda Jo Sass who has had each of the three guests as a teacher, sang, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep you." The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Harold Finley, of Lockport.

Sacred Heart Students Aided Tornado Victims

A helping hand from students of Sacred Heart High school gave a big lift after the Palm Sunday tornadoes to fourth graders in a badly hit Indiana community.

The school learned last week that a Red Cross project performed last year at the Mokena school aided the students of a school, destroyed in the tornado, in Russiaville, Ind.

Usually school chests assembled by High School Red Cross members go to distressed areas overseas. Recent shipments from Will county went to Chile, Korea and Algeria.

This time, however, the need in the nearby disaster area was so pressing that American National Red Cross diverted the chest to Indiana. Joliet Catholic High school students also took part in the project which brought a thank-you letter from the students and their teacher.

Mabel Hughes, the teacher, said that in more than 30 years in her profession she could remember no comparable disaster.

School chests, as prepared for the Red Cross international aid program, contain school, health, recreational and educational materials. Each chest holds enough for 24 pupils. Paper, pencils, crayons, paints, rulers, compasses and protractors are some of the school items.

A first aid kit and wash cloths, towels, tooth brushes and powder, pocket combs and soap make up the health supplies.

For recreational purposes, the chests always hold things like harmonicas, baseballs, a soccer ball and pump and other sports equipment.

Sister Mary Benedict, O.S.F., of Sacred Heart High School and Mrs. Louis Rickelman at Joliet Catholic high school supervised the chest project. Both are high school Red Cross sponsors appointed by the principals.

Christian Scientists Elect Presiding Officer

The Christian Science board of directors urge its church members to find the "areas of agreement" which exist with other denominations -- "rather than think of ourselves as entirely different or exclusive."

From the church's earliest beginnings, said the directors, it has been deeply involved in "the search for the real source of unity."

The message was presented before several thousand members at the annual meeting of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

"On the basis of its spirituality Christian Science has much in common with other denominations," the message noted.

"To every honest adherent of any God-centered faith sincerely working to uplift and unify the human race, we offer our fellowship and support..."

"Today we are confronted with one of history's deepest, most divisive social upheavals," the directors continued.

"Marking this upheaval is the churning drive of the individual to find the real meaning of life and to establish his legitimate place and identity in an increasingly complex and impersonal society."

"People everywhere are crying out for healing -- healing in its larger and broader sense: the overcoming of sin and fear, of ignorance and sorrow..."

"Sooner or later both the individual and society must become willing to face up to the stark and tragic results of rooting their faith in the disappointing promises of matter." This reliance on matter, stated the message, not only "cuts men off from God," but "pulls them down and pulls them apart."

The working basis of Christian Science, the message stated, is that "the understanding of God as divine Love, all-inclusive Spirit, is the one force that can truly hold men together in understanding and harmony."

The annual election of a new church president by the directors was also announced at the meeting. Mrs. Frances S. Wells, C.S.B., of San Antonio, Texas, took over as presiding officer from the retiring president, Edward Froderman of Chicago, Ill. Both of them also hold positions on the board of trustees of The Christian Science Publishing Society.

Mrs. Wells, a graduate of Briarcliff College, N.Y., has been an active teacher and practitioner of Christian Science in San Antonio for several years.

In her remarks to the meeting, Mrs. Wells emphasized that "divine Love knows no race or creed."

Observing that resistance to Christian ideals seems "rampant in the thoughts of men," she then added: "On the other hand, the thought of mankind has never been so roused, the desire to help so active."

In reports to the meeting by the managers of various church departments, it was disclosed that the number of additions in Argentina, The Netherlands, New Zealand, and, for the first time in Guatemala and Korea, 3,300 mark with recent

"We've had electric heat 3 years-for comfort and economy you couldn't want anything better" ...report Mr. and Mrs. John Meske

"In our home, the bedrooms, living room--dining room, bath and kitchen, are all good-sized rooms. Last year, with electric heat, we paid only $175 to heat our 5-room home. And electric heat is so clean. In the three years we've lived here, we haven't had to buy a can of paint or even wash the walls."

What's more, like the Meskes, you'll find electric heat has a lot of other outstanding advantages. For example, it's 100% efficient, no heat is lost up the chimney. Each room has its own individual thermostat. You can set the temperature at 80° in the bathroom, 72° in the living room, 65° in the bedroom, all at the same time. Second-inning hits by Novak, Wallace and Wasaitis combined with two walks and two errors to provide two runs, and the third came as Bill Kennard doubled and eventually scored on a passed ball in the fifth. Wes Thomas of New Lenox was impressive in his relief-pitching appearance, striking out seven batters.

New Lenox Team #1, 10-9, in a game featuring bases on balls and errors. Minger started for New Lenox, with Bedenbaugh relieving, and Fred Handorf collected 2 hits and scored 3 runs for the losers. Girl Scout Door-To-Door Bake Sale Brings In $25

479-5740

The Cadette Girl Scouts held a novel bake sale in Arbury Hills last week with a door-to-door sale from the tail gate of the waiting station wagon. The merchandise ran out before the customers making the sale a success with approximately $25 being added to the troop treasury towards camping funds.

There are plans for two more bake sales in the near future to further stuff the treasury for needed funds following the four day camp-out at the scout campsite at Hawthorne Ridge. Beside Mrs. Markowski and Mrs. Scott, the two co-leaders, Mrs. Burt has also offered to accompany the girls for the trip. From 11 to 13 girls are expected to attend.

Boy Scout Troop 10 from Arbury Hills will have a meeting at the baseball field Wednesday, June 23 in preparation for the weekend campout at Starved Rock June 25-27.

The First Nighters held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Way Thursday, June 3. The winner of the hostesses prize was Mrs. Evelyn King. The location of the July meeting will be announced later.

The report of the committee to determine the feelings of the residents of Arbury Hills on the water situation has gone to the Civic Association.

Results of the petition vote were: 181 voted to do nothing at this time, 159 voted to incorporate as a village, and 25 voted to incorporate as a sanitary district. In the face of this vote the Civic Association will not take further action at this time.

The vote of individuals who voted on more than one petition was removed from the count.

There will be a detailed report distributed to all the residents of Arbury Hills in the near future. Included with the report will be a free resident sticker to be placed on the automobiles.

The Arbury Hills school picnic was held at the Mokena Community Park Sunday, June 6. The beautiful weather brought a large turnout.

There were the usual races for the youngsters and egg throwing and water filled balloon-throwing for the adults. As an added measure there was a dance contest for the teens. Token prizes were awarded to the winners of the events.

A rather helter-skelter softball game ensued with a conglomeration team of youngsters teens and dads playing and umpiring.

The annual picnic of the Arbury Hills Civic Association will be held at the Mokena Community Park Sunday, June 20, from 1 to 8 p.m. It will be geared for the youngest to the oldest and all in between.

There will be soda for the children and beer for the adults. There will also be special prizes awarded for those present.

The cost will be $1.50 per family with the tickets to be purchased at the park on the day of the picnic. No tickets will be sold prior to the day.

The Arbury Hills Boys Baseball League has set up a four town baseball schedule which includes games with Mokena, Frankfort and Lincoln Estates for the 9 to 12-year-olds in the "B" team.

The standings at present with the official games just beginning are:

Team	W	L
Arbury Hills B Team	2	0
Mokena B Team	1	1
Frankfort No. 1 Team	0	1
Lincoln Estates	0	1

Sunday, June 6, the Arbury Hills B team played the Mokena B team with Arbury Hills squeezing past with a 9 to 8 win. This game was followed by another one point margin game Wednesday, June 9 against Frankfort. This free swinging game saw Arbury Hills score the winning run in the last half of the final inning. The final score was 15 to 14.

TWO GRADUATES from Marmion Military Academy, Aurora, this June, are from Mokena, Cadet 1st Lt. Richard M. Muehler (left) and Cadet Sgt. Richard J. Misiorowski. Muehler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Muehler, 11034 Front st. He ranked in the upper half of his class and will continue his studies at Pennsylvania Military college this fall in the field of accounting. Misiorowski is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Misiorowski, 187th and Leila sts., who plans to continue his studies at Lincoln college, Lincoln, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burdett of 9442 W. Hickory spent an enjoyable week-end at the Tippacanoe Country club in Indiana, while their four children spent their time with Grandma and Grandpa Kraybill in Brookfield getting delightfully spotted.

The final Cub Scout Pack meeting of the year was held in the all purpose room of the school on the last Friday in May. The prospective Cub Scouts for September were invited to attend along with their parents to see first hand something of what Cub Scouting is all about.

As the grand finale the Den Mothers and the boys prepared bazaar type booths for the amusement of all.

Mrs. Klein's den had a flower sale of artificial flowers and a rocket to the moon game. Mrs. Homer's den had a balloon dart game and a can game to contribute. Mrs. Lillivik and her boys had a live side show. Mrs. Hart's den sold popcorn and soda pop and had a Bozo the clown game. Mrs. Heise's den had a wishing well and a fortune teller. The total proceeds added to the Cub Scout treasury for the evening was approximately $28.

The appreciation of the Cub Scoutmaster, Mr. Pasky, and that of the parents of the boys goes to all the Den mothers and the nameless others who gave a hand where needed.

The Cub Scouts are eligible to attend four Chicago White Sox baseball games this summer, if enough drivers can be obtained for them. The four dates are; July 17, July 31, Aug. 28 and Oct. 2. The boys would have to leave by 11 a.m. from Arbury Hills. There is no charge to the boys or to the drivers for the games. If you can drive for any of these dates, please contact Mr. Pasky.

The Junior Girl Scout Troop Number 103 is having their three day camp out at the Girl Scout Camp at Hawthorne Ridge from June 28-30. The girls will leave from the school on the morning of June 28 at 10 a.m.

All sleeping bags and bedrolls are to be brought to the home of Mrs. Osuch not later than Saturday, June 26. Everything the girl is taking is to be packed into the bedroll. A list of items to be brought may be obtained at the home of Mrs. Harris, if you come by tomorrow evening. After Friday the lists may be obtained at Mrs. Hovi's house.

The quantity of each item on the list is left to the discretion of the individual, but the bedroll must be signed by the mother as having been checked. It is advised that the name be put on the outside of the bedroll.

The at home mother for this trip is Mrs. Faye Erkman. In the event that a girl must be contacted during the trip for emergencies, please contact Mrs. Erkman at 479-9442.
